

SEUSSICAL WRITING PROMPTS

The Lorax speaks for the trees. What or whom would you speak for? How would you spread your message?

Draw your own Wacky Wednesday scene with at least ten wacky things in it. Make a list of all the wacky things you've included.

Make a list of ten animals you would include in your zoo. Draw one, name it and describe it.

The Cat in the Hat has a trademark item of clothing. What would yours be, and why would you choose it?

If you were Sally or her brother, what would you have done when the Cat in the Hat showed up at your house and invited himself in?

Did I ever tell you how lucky you are? No? Tell me in a poem or letter.

Write a letter to the Grinch to tell him all the reasons you think Christmas is awesome.

Create a poster advertising one book by Dr Seuss. Include three compelling reasons why its such a great book to read.
