101 FUN WAYS TO KEEP KIDS LEARNING ALL SUMMER LONG

- read everyday
- bake cookies
- act out a story
- create with playdough
- make sock puppets
- create a puppet show
- pop popcorn
- send a postcard
- grow a vegetable
- grow sunflowers
- visit an art gallery
- visit a museum
- look at the stars
- make a marble maze
- examine a rockpool
- ride a train
- ride a bus
- visit the zoo
- learn a new song
- try yoga
- visit the library
- make paper planes and measure how far they fly
- go on a number walk
- decorate a t-shirt
- play a card game
- play a board game
- make up a game
- bake a cake
- cook dinner
- visit a farmer’s market
- do a science experiment
- make and test a solar oven
- make slime
- try origami
- write a thank you note
- do a jigsaw puzzle
- play charades
- make a movie about a day in your life
- visit an elderly relative
- play I spy
- make a treasure map
- make a bird feeder
- try lego mosaics
- read to a sibling
- explore the backyard with a magnifying glass
- go on a hike
- fingerprint each family member and compare
- make a bug hotel
- invent a new smoothie recipe
- make a word search
- write your plans for the week on a calendar
- write a movie review
- learn how to use the washing machine
- draw a self portrait
- write a letter to an author you admire
- try a new fruit or vegetable
- measure the height of each member of your family
- draw with chalk
- make up a secret code and write secret messages
- repair something
- create a family time capsule
- tell a story at dinnertime
- design a new cover for the last book you read
- play dominoes
- read for 20 minutes without stopping
- make a straw rocket
- interview a family member
- play with water beads
- play with a friend
- make up a dance
- create a collection of the best jokes for kids
- make popsicles
- create a family tree
- read a non-fiction book
- make a schedule (with times) for the day
- build a card tower
- make an obstacle course
- watch a documentary
- read with a flashlight
- paint
- make homemade pizza
- write a poem
- collect 100 of something
- play a ball game
- draw a plan of your bedroom
- make ice cream in a bag
- volunteer at an animal rescue facility
- make a sundial
- find 5 interesting facts about a topic of interest
- listen to an audio story
- make moon sand
- film a music video
- host an art show
- make a drop helicopter
- perform a random act of kindness
- make a terrarium
- make story stones
- create a new superhero
- sew a softie
- start a journal
- learn something new

© childhood101.com